Young Joins HPN as Regional Vice President in Las Vegas

Las Vegas, NV. (Aug. 13, 2009)...Jonathan Young has joined Hospitality Performance Network (HPN) as regional vice president in Las Vegas. He brings nearly 15 years of hospitality experience to the growing site selection and meeting procurement company.

"I am looking forward to bringing large clients to HPN for site selection and full service opportunities," said Young. "Over the years, I have developed strong relationships with companies who hold meetings for more than 20,000 people and know they would benefit from the wide range of services HPN offers. I am extremely excited to be a part of this innovative and entrepreneurial company."

As a regional vice president, he will be responsible for building and maintaining relationships with large corporate and association accounts throughout the United States. Additionally, he will recruit and train new sales associates and expand HPN's presence throughout the United States.

Prior to joining HPN, Jonathan spent ten years with The Venetian & Palazzo Resort Hotel Casinos in Las Vegas, NV. His most recent position was director of sales for 7,100 5-Diamond suites and 2.25 million square foot meeting and convention space. In this role, he managed a team of 20 sales people, built relationships and partnerships with companies in the IT, financial, pharmaceutical, automotive, medical education and fast food industries and effectively led his team to exceeding their revenue goals each year.

Previous experience includes being on the opening team at the Bellagio in Las Vegas and time at the New York-New York in Las Vegas. Young also worked in various capacities at small hotels throughout the Central coast of California.

He resides in Las Vegas and is an active member of MPI Northern California and Southern California chapters. He also plans to join the Las Vegas Hospitality Association.

Based in Scottsdale, Hospitality Performance Network is the nation's fastest growing site selection and meeting procurement company. Since opening in 2002, they have expanded from two full time employees to a network of more than a 100 sales associates, a purchasing department and a full service meeting management division. HPN offers its clients a customized and comprehensive approach consolidating their meeting procurement needs; including site selection, contract negotiation, destination management, recreation, transportation, housing, registration and production.

In 2008, HPN was ranked on the Inc. 5000 fastest-growing private companies list and named one of Comerica Bank Arizona Companies to Watch. For more information about Hospitality Performance Network, please visit www.hperformance.com or contact Bill Kilburg at (480) 998-9770 ext. 226.
